

CHAPTER 32.

[Published March 30, 1867.]

AN ACT to supply school districts with Webster's unabridged dictionary, in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

State superintendent to supply districts with dictionary on payment of cost.

SECTION 1. The superintendent of public instruction is hereby authorized to furnish to any school district, or to any public school or distinct department thereof, in any village or city in this state, one copy of Webster's unabridged dictionary, on receipt of an affidavit of the district clerk of such district, or of the superintendent of such village or city, that the dictionary furnished to such school by the state has been lost, or is so worn out as to be unfit for use: provided, the said district or city school authorities shall pay to the said superintendent of public instruction the cost price of said dictionaries in advance.

Moneys to be paid to state treasurer.

SECTION 2. The superintendent of public instruction shall pay to the state treasurer all money received on account of dictionaries sold under the provisions of the first section of this act, and take duplicate receipts therefor, one of which he shall file in his office, and deposit the other in the office of the secretary of state, and render an account of all dictionaries sold, in his annual report to the legislature.

Repealed.

SECTION 3. All acts and parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 21, 1867.
